

$150 REWARD.

A HSCONDED from the service of the subscriber, living in Frederick, Maryland, on the night of the 15th inst. a bright mulatto boy, named

CYRUS,

About 19 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high with straight hair. He may, without much difficulty, pass for a white person, which he will probably attempt. The clothing which he took with him consisted of a variety of summer pantaloons and vests, a full suit of black broad cloth, an olive frock coat with velvet collar, belonging to his master, and several linen shirts, marked, in durable ink, "Wm Schley." He is well supplied with money, which he abstracted from the drawer of his master. He rode away a large dark brown match horse, about 16½ hands high, with switch tail, of gay carriage, and a fine trotter under the saddle. The saddle was a new one, made by Edward Trail, of Frederick, whose card may be found under the flap. He also took with him an ivory mounted riding whip.

☞ The above reward will be paid for the recovery of the slave and horse—or $100 for the slave and $50 for the horse.
